Star Party at Hyde Memorial State Park

Santa Fe, NM – It is a spectacular time of year for a star party and Hyde Memorial State Park is hosting one on Friday, May 9, 2014.

“Our star parties are fun for the whole family,” said State Parks Regional Interpreter Peter Lipscomb. “New Mexico night skies are very dark allowing for excellent views. Visitors will be treated to an experience they won’t soon forget.”

The event will be held from 8:30 – 10:30 p.m. on the patio at the historic Hyde Park Lodge. Members of the Capital City Astronomy Club will be on hand with telescopes to help visitors navigate the beautiful night sky and its many constellations.

It is only $5 per vehicle for a night of family fun. Hyde Memorial is New Mexico’s first state park set in the Sangre de Cristo Mountains and a short drive from Santa Fe.
