32nd Annual Paddle Board Races at Bottomless Lakes State Park

Roswell, NM – Race on - Bottomless Lakes State Park style! Bottomless Lakes State Park is hosting their 32nd Annual Paddle Board Races on Saturday, August 4th from 1-3 p.m. in the Lea Lake Recreational Area.

“Not only is paddle boarding a tradition at Bottomless Lakes State Park, it’s great exercise and a lot of fun,” said Bottomless Lakes State Park Superintendent Max Michanczyk. “You may be the fastest in the water, but you’ll never know unless you come and compete with other park visitors.”

Great prizes will be awarded for all age categories: 8-younger; 9-10; 11-12; 13-14 and 15 & older. Registration to compete in the race is free; however, day-use fees to enter the park do apply. Contestants can sign up at the park the day of the race.

Always make safety your number one priority—being prepared on the water and wearing lifejackets saves lives. The State Parks Division offers FREE boating safety classes around the state and on-line throughout the year.

Along the Pecos River Valley near Roswell, Bottomless Lakes State Park is known for its beautiful, deep lakes that offer loads of outdoor fun.
