8th Annual River Roundup at Cimarron Canyon State Park

Cimarron, NM – Join the Friends of Cimarron Canyon and the Moreno Valley Trekkers in its annual river clean up on Saturday, August 8th. Volunteers will walk the river banks picking up litter. The Cimarron River flows through a narrow, forested canyon located near Eagle Nest on the Enchanted Circle Scenic Byway.

Volunteers are asked to meet at the Palisades Picnic Area promptly at 8:30 a.m. Saturday morning (map is attached) for a brief safety meeting. Gloves, safety vests and bags will be provided. All volunteers are asked to please bring rubber boots. Free goodies and refreshments will be served.

Cimarron Canyon State Park is located on US Highway 64 at mile marker 294. The park offers beautiful views, interesting geology, quiet camping, fly fishing, hiking and equestrian trails. The wildlife viewing opportunities are amazing, as the park sits at the center of the Colin Neblett Wildlife Management Area.
