Native to New Mexico
Camping and RV'ing in parks allows visitors to experience parks on a local level. Here are some of the great activities and programs featured in State Parks.

"The Tweet Life"
For a growing number of people, birding is a wonderful outdoor activity. A pair of binoculars, a good guidebook and a New Mexico State Park is all you need. Start your birding adventure on the NM Birding Trail where eight New Mexico State Parks are featured: Pancho Villa, Rockhound, City of Rocks, Leasburg Dam, Percha Dam, Caballo Lake, Elephant Butte Lake, and Mesilla Valley Bosque State Parks.

Catch a Memory!
Fishing is one of the most popular activities at our NM State Parks. Twenty-four parks have ponds, streams, rivers or lakes, providing a variety of fishing experiences.

Baby, You’re a Star!
State Parks has many star parties throughout the year. The night sky has enlightened and inspired for thousands of years, and New Mexico is blessed with dark, beautiful night skies showcased at our parks.

City of Rocks State Park – This observatory was the first in the system. The roll-off roof allows for amazing viewing, and visitors can see distant galaxies and night sky objects on video monitors or through smaller telescopes. Astronomers provide regular programs.

Clayton Lake State Park - A partnership with volunteers and local astronomers was the drive for this observatory.Located in the central part of the park, a state of the art astronomy viewing is just that--a zoo to view wildlife. Rio Grande Nature Center State Park offers indoor and outdoor wildlife viewing. Heron Lake State Park is famous for majestic Osprey, also known as the fish hawk.

Meet the Stars!
State Parks regularly holds star parties through knowledgeable rangers, professional and amateur astronomers, and volunteers. From star gazing basics, views through individual telescopes, to large-scale observatory experiences, State Parks has programs for all levels of night sky enthusiasts.

Enjoy an enchanted evening under the stars. Unique camping experiences are available and whether you like to roll out your sleeping bag or curl up in your RV, NM State Parks has it all.

Connect with Nature
NM State Parks has many tranquil spots designated for “primitive” camping. These quiet sites may have a tent pad and can include boating and beach camping.

Let Us Hook You Up!
NM State Parks accommodates a wide range of developed camping experiences from the smallest camp trailer or pop-up, to a fully loaded RV. Developed sites have electric hookups (30 or 50 amps), sewage, water hookups or both, as well as shelters, picnic tables and grills.

The Comforts of Home
Helping make our visitors feel at home is important to us. Campground amenities can include: vault toilets, comfort stations, playgrounds and group shelters. Some parks have large group shelters set aside for group camping. RV rally sites can be found at some parks and can accommodate groups of RVs for family and friend gatherings. Horses are welcome at parks that provide equestrian camping and trails. Check out Caballo Lake, Sugarite Canyon and Cerillos Hills State Parks.

Life at a Higher Level
One of the most diverse trail systems can be found at Sugarite Canyon State Park, which boasts 15 miles of trails. Hikers enjoy a historic coal camp, wildlife viewing, streams and lakes.

Ride Through History
Mining history, geology and horseback riding can all be found on the trails of Cerillos Hills State Park. The park features five miles of trails with great views of the Ortiz Mountains and beyond.

Stay Cool
You don’t need an ocean to sail, scuba dive, kayak or jet ski! Visit our largest body of water at Elephant Butte Lake State Park, or scuba dive in the clear blue waters at Bottomless Lakes State Park.
