

Sarah Wood, Executive Director. Sarah grew up in New Mexico and is a proud Lob-Aggie, having attended both UNM and NMSU where she earned her B.S. and M.S. in Biology. She has lived and worked throughout New Mexico with the US Forest Service and New Mexico Natural Heritage Program as a biologist. She was with New Mexico State Parks for 17 years where she was a regional interpreter, park manager and regional manager. She volunteers with restoration and trail projects, and still likes to present interpretive programs at state parks. She enjoys hiking, rafting, biking, exploring New Mexico, and fixing things
